Entries limited to first-come, first serve with only 10 entries accepted.

Do you like it spicey or not? Two types of chili—regular or spicey

Districts can choose which type they wish to enter.

Everyone will help select the winning District Chili by purchasing ten tickets for $20. Then they will taste and select their favorite (placing tickets in the containers).

Chili will not be identified by Districts but by color code.

Volunteer servers will be needed.

Cinnamon Rolls will be available to purchase for $2 each.

First place prize for each type (regular and spicey) will have District Chili Cook Off bragging rights and a special prize.

Districts are encouraged to involve their American Legion Family.

Following the “tasting and selecting” the District's chili will be sold. Small container--$4 and large container--$8.

POKER RUN—$5 to play a hand, play as many hands as you like, and best hand wins at the end of the night!

DETAILS: When a District registers for the Chili Cook Off, the following information will be provided:

- Provide six quarts of chili
- Bring your own soup ladle
- Bring any “toppings” you want to offer
- Have chili fully cooked and ready to serve by 6 pm
